

VI CONGRESS OF THE BRAZILIAN CIVIL LAW INSTITUTE: PRIVATE AUTONOMY, EXISTENTIAL FREEDOM AND FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

UNIVERSITY OF FORTALEZA - UNIFOR

FORTALEZA – CEARÁ

OCTOBER 18-20, 2018

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

We kindly invite participants from all over the world to submit, from December 10, 2017 to March 19, 2018, an abstract (500 words maximum) pertaining to one of the subjects included in ANNEX I of this Call that I would like to present at the VI Congress of the Brazilian Civil Law Institute "Private autonomy, existential freedom and fundamental rights", to be held at the University of Fortaleza (UNIFOR), Fortaleza, Ceará, Brazil, from October 18 to 20, 2018. The abstract must be unpublished and can be written in Portuguese, English, French, Spanish or Italian, on one of the topics listed in ANNEX I, and is to be sent to e-mail address: vicongressoibdcivil@ibdcivil.org.br. On the cover page, the author must indicate his/her full name and the name of the co- author, if any, degrees (master students, doctoral students, masters, juris doctors), institutional affiliation, country of origin and e-mail address. Only summaries of authors with a Stricto Sensu Postgraduation Degree, in progress or completed, will be accepted.

Each participant may submit, at the most, two abstracts that will go through double blind evaluation by reviewers with doctoral degrees in order to select those that will be approved for presentation. At the end of the evaluation process, all participants will be notified by March 28, 2018 about the result attributed to their respective abstract. Among those approved for oral presentation, those who have an interest in expanding their abstract into a scientific paper for publication in the annals of the event, must send a new submission, sending the complete text to the same electronic address above, from April 01 to 30, 2018.

The scientific article must comply with the norms established by ANNEX II and will be subject to a new evaluation by means of double blind evaluation by reviewers with doctoral degrees.

Rio de Janeiro, February 07, 2018

Scientific Committee of the 6th IBDCivil Congress

ANNEX I

Private autonomy, existential freedom and fundamental rights
Civil law, codification and Constitution
Application of constitutional rules in relationships among individuals
Proportionality and reasonableness
Methods of interpretation
Plurality of normative sources
The precedents of the interpretation theory
New technologies and private relations
Information, technology and new goods
Cryptography
Software and know how
New legal business (platforms, sharing economy, smart contracts, etc.)
The legal challenges arising from the advancement of robotics and artificial intelligence
Big data
The protection of personal data on the internet
Genetic discrimination, health protection and vulnerability
Genetic discrimination in private relations
Genetic data protection upon contracting insurance
New forms of interaction between the body and technologies: possibilities and risks of post-human
Acts of disposition of the body itself
Orthotanasia and living will
Legal treatment of abortion
Autonomy of vulnerable patients
Risk and responsibility
Equitable reduction of indemnity and objective liability
Civil liability and insurance
Objective responsibility for risky activities
Criteria for identifying new damage, especially in the context of breach of human dignity
Causal link, alternative causation and imputation link
Risk analysis of development as exclusive of responsibility
The loss of chance in Brazilian law
Punitive function and civil liability
Repercussions of plea bargain and leniency agreements on award of damages
Comprehensive risk and environmental protection
Profit from intervention
Damage from deprivation of use
Contractual protection and vulnerabilities
Contract freedom and social function of the contract
Contractual freedom and objective good faith
Contractual freedom and contractual balance

Incomplete contracts
Termination clause in contractual relations
Substantial performance
General duties of conduct in contractual relations
Transformations in inheritance law
Legitimate heirs in contemporary civil law
The legal regime of the succession of companions: repercussions of the judgment of the REs 646.721 and 678.694 in the Federal Supreme Court
Concurrent succession
Collation of donated goods and their method of calculation (divergence between CC and CPC)
Wills and the new information technologies and simplification requirements
Ownership, company and guarantees
Social function of property
Social function of the company
Trust utilities for the orders of the Roman Germanic family
New functions of security interest
Atypical personal guarantees: qualification and control of deserving guardianship
Objective good faith and corporate law
Fiduciary guarantees
Equity of public access and use
New boundaries between the company and the market (hybrid contracts, associative contracts and contract networks)
Existential autonomy and private relations
Fundamental rights and protection of vulnerable groups
Protection of people with disabilities
Protection of children and adolescents
Unauthorized biographies
Effectiveness of advance directives of will
Privacy and voluntary exposure on social networks
Right to forgetfulness
Right to ignorance
Right to personal identity
New families, equality and solidarity
Plurality of forms of family entities. Scope of recognition of equality between spouse and partner.
Homoaffective families
Simultaneous and polyamory families
Repercussions of the Statute for Persons with Disability on family law
Parameters for the legal recognition of multiparentality
Patrimonial and existential provisions in prenuptial agreements
Food obligation and solidarity in families
The challenges of gestation by substitution
The biotechnological revolution and family relations

Legal challenges arising from genetic manipulations in family relationships
Shared egg donation
Person, market and consumption
Preemptive and prescriptive periods in consumer relations
Advertising aimed at children. Misleading and abusive advertising.
General clause against abuse: theoretical analysis and practical examples
Legal discipline applicable to captive contracts
Over-indebtedness
Integral reparations and international treaties and conventions
Formation of electronic contracts and internet advertising
Electronic contracts
Civil liability of suppliers of electronic goods and services
Default payment in consumer relations: additions, facts and losses and damages
Cookies policy and mandatory registration for purchases
Real estate structuring and new functions
New condominium functions
Martian pact
Property right
Surface right
Immaterial property
Search engines and their repercussions on industrial property
Content providers and offenses posted by third parties
Hosting providers/platforms and responsibility for fake news
Copyright in the face of new media
Copyright in the digital age
Access to fundamental rights and common goods
New technologies and knowledge appropriation
Common use of essential goods: possible model?
Community models of management and sharing
Democratic city and new technologies
Internet as a common good and right of access
Comparative private law
Methodology of study of comparative law
Methods of weighing interests in common law and civil law systems
Compulsory licensing in Brazil and worldwide
Transformations of contractual law in Latin America
Non-signatory parties to arbitration: internal rules and international principles

ANNEX II

- Papers should be submitted in Word 97 format or higher (DOC standard).
- The full text, including tables, illustrations and bibliographical references, must comply with the Brazilian Association of Technical Standards (ABNT), following the instructions below:

- Title in Portuguese, in English and in the original language of the article, for texts written in another language);
- The title in Portuguese must be written without bold, centralized and in upper-case letters. The title in English and/or in the original language of the text must be below the title in Portuguese, in italics, centralized, in upper-case letter.
- Abstract (maximum 250 words) and three keywords, written in Portuguese, English (and in the original language of the article).
- Text (containing introduction, development, and completion, even if the topics are given different designations). The textual structure must fit scientific work requirements, containing introduction, development, conclusion and references.
- References, aligned to the left.
- Attachments (optional).
- Formatting:

Spaces

- between the lines: 1.5;
- between paragraphs: 0 pts;
- between title and text: one line (one enter);
- between footnotes: 1.0;
- between the lines of long citations: 1.0;
- between the lines of the same reference: 1.0;
- between one reference and another: 6 pts;
- between the text and a long citation: 6 pts;
- Start paragraph with 1.0 cm in the Word ruler;
- Long citation (more than 3 lines) should be placed with a 4.0 cm indentation from the left margin (3.0 cm over the margin of the paragraph).

Font

- Times New Roman
- Abstract 10
- Text 12
- Long Citation 10
- Footnote 10

Titles

- Title of article 14 Upper case - no bold
- Titles of the chapters of the article - 12 Upper case bold
- Subtitles 12 Upper case italics
- Sub-subtitles 12 Regular upper case

References

- Font size 12 (titles highlighted in bold)

Margins

- left: 3.0 cm
- right: 2.0 cm
- upper: 3.0 cm
- lower: 2.0 cm

4. References: list of works and research sources cited in the article according to ABNT - NBR 6023/2002.